Call for Papers

26th Chitose International Forum on Science & Technology (CIF26) will be held at Chitose Institute of Science and Technology (CIST), Hokkaido, Japan. This forum will feature world-class keynote speakers, invited speakers, and regular sessions composed of on-site oral presentations.

SCOPE

This conference explores the 'New Digital Frontier' by connecting the entire spectrum of technology, from the fundamental atoms of material science to the complex ecosystems of software. We seek contributions that address not only the performance of next-generation semiconductors and artificial intelligence but also their environmental impact and sustainability. By bringing together students from material science, electronics, information technology, and environmental science, we aim to discuss how to architect a responsible and innovative future.

ABSTRACTS

An abstract (approximately 250 words), which should follow an IEEE Abstract Format†1, must be submitted for presentation. Abstracts must include the title of the presentation, author(s) name(s), affiliation(s), and email(s). Please submit your abstract through the Confit abstract submission system. Acceptance/rejection notifications will send to the authors. The abstracts will be opened on the website without any access control.
